A Day in the Life Edition

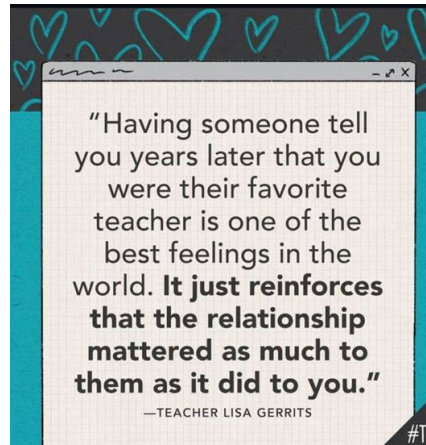

Dear Students, Parents, Guardians and Caregivers,

A Day in the Life is a phrase that conveys a sense of routine, habits or the regular activities that make up a person's daily experience. This is a Day in the Life at Pearson.

A communication iPad used with some of our students in ACCESS. Stacey Running Rabbit made these magnificent medallions to present to all our indigenous graduates.

We got a nice surprise, one of our guest teachers, Ms. Cam, was a Pearson graduate in 2018, my first year. Ms. Ly, on the right, was also a Pearson graduate that year. Ms. Cam is Science and Ms. Ly is Math; great to see the success of Pearson graduates.

Our photography students creating a clone collage, where the subject is talking to oneself. The Football team is selling old Pearson gear to raise funds to replace expired football equipment.

Be sure to get your tickets for the Spring Music Concert on Wednesday, May 29th. There was a huge rush for grad banquet tickets on Tuesday!!
